

Call for Bids for INTERSPEECH 2019

Dear ISCA members:

Those who have plans to organize INTERSPEECH 2019 are encouraged to submit their proposals to: conferences@isca-speech.org before

November 1, 2015. A proposal must be submitted by the interested institution, usually by the person who will act as chairman of the conference, including the basic proposed data such as:

-  Name and position of the proposed General Chair and Vice Chair or Chairpersons
-  Proposed period when the conference would be held (between end of August and beginning of October)
- * The institution assuming financial responsibility for the conference
-  The city and conference center proposed (with information on that center's capacity)
- * Information on transportation and housing for conference participants
- * Commercial conference organizer (if any) to be employed
- * Likely support from local bodies (e.g. governmental)
- * Preliminary budget and fees (not exceeding a prescribed limit)
- * Other information supporting the application

If you need more time to prepare all the information above, let us know 'basic information' indicated by '' temporarily. Do not hesitate to ask us, if you have any questions.

A standard bid and budget template can be downloaded from <http://www.isca-speech.org/iscaweb/index.php/conferences>.

Keikichi Hirose, Nick Campbell (Conferences, ISCA Board)